Airman Held For Grand Jury Action

A 20-year-old airman AWOL from Keesler Air Force Base is being held in Hancock County jail on two counts of burglary.

According to Sheriff Gerald Price the man identified as Donald Woodley was bound over to action of the Grand Jury following a hearing Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Beat 5 Nelius Rhodes.

Sheriff Price reported Woodley was arrested Monday night near the foot of the Highway bridge by City Police Officer Latham Garriga and Deputy Sheriff Gerald Price, Jr.

The suspect was spotted in Weber's Frosty Inn near the bridge by Garriga who, after seeing the man in the closed establishment called the sheriff's office for assistance. Woodley was arrested later, Price stated, as he was rummaging through some items of clothing and other articles hidden under the bridge.

The clothing, the sheriff said, was reportedly stolen from the Waveland home of W. A. Stahl which he said had shown signs of being broken into.

Judge Rhodes set bond at $5,000 in the house burglary and at $2,500 in the burglary of the ice cream establishment.

Sheriff Price stated Woodley was being held for action of the March term of Circuit Court.

A detainer, the sheriff concluded, has been filed on Woodley by authorities at Keesler Air Force Base.

Health Officer Asks For Generous Support Of March Of Dimes

Dr. A. L. Gray, State Health Officer, has called on Mississippians to be generous in their support of the 23rd annual March of Dimes campaign beginning next week in the state and throughout the nation.

The health officer, serving his third year as state chairman for the traditional January fund appeal, today announced the completion of the campaign organization for each county in the state.

Leading the group of volunteer workers in Hancock County will be Mrs. Theo Tudury, Bay St. Louis, serving as campaign director. The drive will continue through the month of January.

The New March of Dimes, Dr. Gray pointed out, seeks to raise the funds it needs to continue the attack against three major crippling, arthritis, birth defects and polio.

"These stubborn cripples affect one in every four U. S. families," the health officer said. "One out of every 16 babies is born with a significant birth defect, and over 11,000,000 persons are afflicted with crippling arthritis or a similar rheumatic disease, he stated.

"The citizens of Mississippi, through their splendid support of the March of Dimes for more than 20 years, have contributed substantially to a great health program that resulted in the Salk vaccine. Continued support offers promise of similar breakthrough toward the prevention of arthritis and birth defects.

"The National Foundation has proved its worthiness and its capacity to effectively combat these crippling. The most effective ammunition any of us can supply is the dollars we give to the 1961 New March of Dimes," Dr. Gray declared.

March of Dimes funds are used in a broad program of research, professional education and patient aid.

Mrs. Theo Tudury, Chairman of the Hancock County Chapter of The National Foundation, today called on all citizens of the county to give full support to the New March of Dimes drive.

Beloit, Wis., Dec. 20 — A Beloit college junior majoring in chemistry, Cleta Kay Miller of Bay St. Louis, Miss., is one of 10 students chosen from the Associated College of the Midwest to participate in the second semester of the pioneering "Argonne Semester Program."

Miss Miller was one of three students chosen for the chemistry division. The other students are divided between the biology and physics divisions.

The students will receive a semester credit for this carefully worked out program of study and research.

NEW JAYCEE OFFICERS

Sheriff Gerald V. Price reported he has hired a private investigator to assist in probing the hi-jacking of Stiefel Bros. panel truck loaded with $2,700 worth of tax-paid liquor Friday morning near Kiln.

"We have some very good leads," Sheriff Price said, "and we intend to crack the case."

The missing truck was found about 11 A. M. Friday parked in a grove of trees about 50 feet off State Highway 53 east of Sellers Community near the Harrison County Line.

Herbert Stiefel, 26, co-operator of Stiefel Brothers wholesale liquor warehouse in Waveland, said the ignition keys were in the truck, but the load of liquor was gone.

Stiefel said an undetermined amount of money covering collections was also missing. Three marks alongside Highway 53, he added, indicated the hold-up men had apparently attempted to drive the truck off the blacktop highway at another place, but had struck soft ground and pulled back into the highway.

Price said Ray Stiefel reported the truck was traveling north on Highway 603 near Kiln about 5:30 A. M. when it was hi-jacked.

The truck was operated by the Stiefel brothers' uncle A. J. Stiefel, 55, and Donald Dorn, a warehouse employee.

Price said Stiefel quoted the two men as saying two late model cars, one equipped with a siren and hand operated red light, forced the truck to the side of the road.

Four men, their faces covered with khaki knit head-gear, and wearing khaki pea-jackets, got out of their cars, Stiefel said, and one carrying a .38 caliber pistol, "threatened to kill" his uncle and Dorn.

The hi-jackers took approximately $230 from the two men then tied them with cords and placed pillow cases over their heads. They drove off and left Dorn and A. J. Stiefel beside the road.

After working themselves free, the men notified Sheriff Price's office and a bulletin giving a description of the truck and two automobiles was issued.

"The hi-jackers may try to resell the liquor," Herbert Stiefel said; but "it would be hard to identify it," he concluded.

Our annual pilgrimage through-out Waveland in search of unusual, original and attractive Christmas decorations was made Monday evening and in spite of the fog, the mist and the urge to hug the fireplace, this reporter found the journey most worthwhile. The town really glowed, and even the street lights wrapped in fog produced an aura of light that resembled halos—very fitting for the night after Christmas. Outstanding among the decorations that were lighted for viewing Monday evening was the impressive Nativity Scene in the beachfront yard of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scrimshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Colson. Topped by the beaming star of Bethlehem, the manger with the infant Jesus, Joseph and Virgin Mary shines out in the night with its wonderful message of the Holy Birth, while in front of the manger lie the animals. Religious music plays softly in the background as one gazes at the well-known and well-loved manger scene. Below the figures and the animals, in lighted letters, is the message, LEST WE FORGET—so true in this twentieth century of commercialism. This arrangement won first place in the judging sponsored by the Bay-Waveland Garden Club.

Another home that was decorated most artistically was the residence of Mrs. Lena Cuevas of Jeff Davis Avenue. Her rooftop featured a large silver star outlined in blue lights, and the traditional greeting, "Merry Christmas." Mrs. Cuevas tells us that her son, Felton was responsible for getting this job done. His efforts won for the Cuevases the Garden Club's roof prize.
The John A. Munch home on Waveland Avenue is almost breathtaking. A large revolving metallic tree changing in colors, catches the onlookers' eyes. The doorway, and picture windows framed in lights some of them blinking, bring oh's and ah's of admiration, until the attention is drawn to a second window where the manger scene is depicted. Then the whole beautiful picture of Christmas is complete and we linger awhile to admire the dazzling display in the quiet of the foggy night.
Santa Claus... two of them no less... decorate the front of the house of the R. L. Jones' Jeff Davis Ave. which is completely outlined in various colored lights. In the center of the porch shining out from glass doors is a beautiful metallic tree. Giant candles on each side of the steps complete this most attractively decorated home.
Other Waveland-folk have used candles at their entrances to heighten the Christmas feeling of good cheer. We saw candles at the Herbert Baron home on Beach Blvd. and at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Marcel Gillis at Oak and the Beach; and candles and pine decorating the home entrance of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ball in Pecan Grove Lane.
Lighted Santas adorned the door of the Stephen Hartels on Beach Boulevard; the Rohr home on Jeff Davis; the Bell Carr-home on Market St. A delightful Santa in a sleigh loaded with toys and drawn with two reindeer was parked on the lawn of the "Arva Jenkins" home on Market St. The beautifully decorated tree of the Edgar Jenkins on Market St. attracted attention. Did the tinkling bells on the doorway of the Tony Bourgeois residence on Market St. "This home" also had a lovely tree and a picture window outlined in lights. From Market Street we got a view of the Turcotte's Christmas tree and their lighted doorway which welcomed all guests and friends to their home on Bourgeois Lane. Other homes in this area which looked lovely in their Christmas lights was the home of the T. H. Brockman family on Beach Boulevard and the P. J. Penard home on the beach, glowing as a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Baker Turner and young son who arrived from Atlanta, Ga. to spend the holidays in Waveland.

The outdoor porch tree with window lights at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCaleb, Sr. and Mrs. J. T. McCaleb, Jr. on Market Street, was a sight to behold. The tree was lighted with many colorful lights and the porch was also lighted. The McCaleb family arrived from Atlanta, Ga. to spend the holidays in Waveland.

large blue star adorning the home of Mrs. William Rohr on Nicholson Avenue—the rooftop of the Adam Russell and the A. J. Chagnard home on St. Joseph Street. Here there is a fire place, toys and lights, and a Cross outlined in blue lights—outdoor lights at the V. A. Leveau home—and always something interesting in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bourgeois on Waveland Avenue. This year an angel that glows in a bright spotlight and another arrangement of a small shrine framed in blue lights—beautiful metallic trees glowed in the windows of our business establishments, too—in Eileen's, the Burgermaster, Jr., Scrimshaw's, and Martel's. Christmas lights have glowed from Haverty's for several weeks now, also from Mollere's, Wilcox's, Brewsters, Colson's, and Herlihy's—making Coleman Avenue very festive—and then there's our truly beautiful Town Hall; A large wreath welcomes callers at the Pirie House of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Lister. As one enters the glassed-in porch, a beautifully decorated tree stands forth in the center. On Little Town Hall Waveland how brightly you have shown during this Christmas season. To those folk who also had attractive decorations for Christmas that for some reason escaped us during our journey through town, forgive us for not mentioning them. Perhaps we'll get to them next time.

Get well wishes to Mrs. Ed Harris who is recuperating from a virus attack.
Home for Christmas after being hospitalized were Mrs. Charles Ferry and Mrs. A. Poursine. Both ladies are on the road to complete recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gruntz and son of New Orleans spent Monday in Waveland as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Mollere and family.
Happy birthday to Ann Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch who celebrated her 6th birthday on Christmas Day. Also Happy Birthday to Charlotte Price daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Price, Jr. who celebrated her birthday this week.

Christmas Day was the birthday of Kiddy Lalel, too. Hope you have many more happy ones, Kiddy.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morel enjoyed Christmas in New Orleans where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Val Reinhard. Mrs. Morel is the sister of Mrs. Reinhard.
Capt. C. M. Turcotte enjoyed the holidays at home with his family. Continued wishes for good health are sent to the Captain.
Captain Carl Craft, a former resident of Waveland who is presently making his home in Galveston, Texas, is a holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Delma Wilcox.
Open house, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch drew many friends together Christmas Day. Harry is better again and everyone wishes him continued good health.
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall and daughter, Miss Lynn Hall, have returned to their Waveland home after a short visit to Rusk, Texas, to visit Mr. Hall's family. They made the trip by car, stopping off to spend several hours in Natchez.
Mrs. Dwight Schiber of Monroe, La., spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks and Mrs. Addie Walker.

The Walter Turcotte family "pull house" for Christmas was the entire neighborhood. A wonderful that these folks didn't lose their house altogether. A fire in their kitchen Saturday morning, was quite a stir, but the Turcottes and Mr. Jimmy managed to put out the fire before it could do great damage. The bathroom walls and ceiling were burned and will have to be replaced. The Waveland Fire Department was "on the job" but the Turcottes' garden hose "did the job" before the fire engine was needed. It's good to know that the fire apparatus will arrive in the nick of time, however. The family had a real get together Christmas Day, however, and those who enjoyed it were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turcotte, Sr., Misses Mary Margaret, Cecile and Evelyn Turcotte, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Piazza and children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turcotte, Jr. and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schwander and children of New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bourgeois, Aggie Bourgeois, Mickey McGill, and Mr. Russell Gussel of New Orleans.
Mr. Adam Russell and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chagnard and family had as their guests Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Andry and Mr. Charles Johns of New Orleans.

Jayettes Hold Meeting
December 14th
The Bay St. Louis Jayettes held their December 14 meeting at the home of Mrs. Herbert Stiefel, President Valerie Marenco, opened the program by welcoming Mrs. Henry Monti as a new member. During the business session, it was stated by the president that an assigned committee had finished and donated children's night gowns to the Hancock General Hospital. After all business was finished each member proudly displayed their talents in demonstrating Xmas articles which they made very inexpensively. Many ideas were given to the ladies present. The meeting was closed and gifts were exchanged by the group. Refreshments prepared by Mrs. Frank Schmidt and President Marengo were served. Among those enjoying the party were: Mesdames E. J. Marengo, Frank Schmidt, Andy Martinovich, Frank Hill, Joseph Kersanac, Ralph Hill, T. J. Bourgeois, John Ginn, Bernard Piazza, Mike Haas, Alec Caspolich, Henry Monti, Carlos Arnold and Herbert Stiefel.

At the December 14 meeting a motion was made by Mrs. Michael Haas that the group start a new project, upon the finish of the children's night gowns donated to the Hancock General Hospital; that project being to help the Hancock County Welfare Department in any way possible. A child's toy was brought to the meeting by each member and will be given to the Department to dispose of as they see fit. A motion was made by Mrs. Henry Monti that we rummage thru our home and gather all clothes that are not being used and Mrs. Alec Caspolich agreed to do any necessary repairs in getting the clothes in condition for the Welfare office to distribute. Anyone wishing to help us along with this project by donating a new or old toy or clothes please contact the Welfare Department or Mrs. Herbert Stiefel. Your donation will be greatly appreciated by us and some needy family.

Yesterday is gone. We tear its page from our calendar, for we live in the present.

But often we look back with nostalgia to the many yesterdays which make up the past. In a different mood we plan for the uncertain days ahead, sometimes filling them with happy expectations, sometimes with anxious forebodings.

Where is God in this time pattern of our lives?

Is He in the past alone, incarnate two thousand years ago in the great Teacher of Nazareth? Or does He walk with us through the present, our Companion each day? Does He remove all fear from the future with His promise, the promise of the living Christ, "And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world?"

Come to Church and learn to know this Christ who is "the same yesterday, today, and forever."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a cornerstone of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four essential reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
